UDAIPUR ATTRACTIONS

Udaipur also known as the City of Lakes, a district in the state of Rajasthan in western India. Udaipur was the historic capital of the former kingdom of Mewar in Rajputana Agency. Many of the palaces have been converted into luxury hotels. It is often called the "Venice of the East".

Udaipur was named Best City of the World in 2009 by Travel + Leisure. Udaipur is also known as the Kashmir of Rajasthan. It is claimed that Jag Mandir of Udaipur was the inspiration behind Shahjahan's creation of the Taj Mahal.

City Palace, Udaipur-

Standing on the east bank of Lake Pichola is a massive series of palaces built at different times from 1559

Fateh Sagar Lake-

Situated in the north of Lake Picholas. It was originally built by Maharana Jai Singh in the year 1678 AD.

Lake Pichola- Has two islands, Jag Niwas

and the Jag Mandir
Originally built by Maharana Udai Singh II.

Jag Mandir is another island in Lake Pichola which is known for its garden courtyard. Shah Jahan took refuge here while revolting against his father.

The Lake Palace-Built in 1743-1746, originally built as a royal summer palace, but is now a luxury 5 Star hotel, operating under the "Taj Hotels Resorts and Palaces" banner.

Maharana memorial-Atop the Moti Magri or Pearl Hill, overlooking the Fateh Sagar Lake is the memorial of the Rajput hero Maharana Pratap statue of the Maharana astride with "Chetak".

Transport

Udaipur is well connected to the major cities of India by land, rail and air. It is located 403 kilometres southwest of Jaipur, 248 kilometres west of Kota, and 250 kilometres from Ahmedabad. Road routes to Udaipur are also very good.
